

Hello! I'm Greg Dudzinski a Licensed Professional Counselor in Detroit, Michigan. I specialize in helping couples and individuals rebuild and enhance their relationships in a professional counseling setting. I also provide help for others by hosting a nationally broadcasted live call-in radio show: The Art of Relationships Radio Show ©. This is a live internet based radio show, along with recorded podcast available. Unlike terrestrial radio advertising, your business will constantly be heard and won't vanish after it's played! Plus you will have a NO COMPETING business guarantee!

The show is available live on speaker.com, the show's own mobile device apps, Soundcloud, Tunein.com, iTunes, and Podcast Detroit. It is currently pending for I-Heart Radio syndication.

The Art of Relationships Radio Show reaches over 300,000 listeners per week nationwide under a partnership with Podcast Detroit.com. That is a huge supply of new customers to your business! Listener demographics: 60% Metro Detroit, 35% the remainder of the USA, 5% Canada, England and Europe. These figures continue to greatly increase on a continuous basis.

I would love to promote your business live on the air every Sunday and Wednesday evening from 9:00 to 11:00 pm. EST. This is a very cost effective way to build your own customer base, plus bring new customers into your doors, or into your internet store fronts!

Sponsorship and Advertising on "The Art of Relationships Radio Show" is a dynamic and cost effective way to drive more customers into your business! See enclosed for advertising options, or we would be more than happy to customize a plan to suit your business goals!

Thank you for your consideration! Please call me with any questions you may have!
